Chairman Hanson stated that his recommendation in order of preference would be Bruce Johnson, Simon Tonge, and Shadd Piehl.

2. Chairman's Recusal

Chairman Hanson stated that he spoke with HR and it was suggested that since he has a personal relationship with Shadd Piehl and in fact, recruited him for the position, that he should possibly recuse himself. Chairman Hanson said that he discussed this with Legal Counsel Josh Amundson.

Legal Counsel Amundson stated that he reviewed the conflict of interest under the ND Ethics Commission rule 115-04-01, under the Administrative Code and read the information to the other Commissioners.

5. Follow-up Discussion

Chairman Hanson asked for advice on the steps for the Commission from HRMS Rep. Lynn Burgard.

HRMS Rep. Lynn Burgard stated the next steps in the process. The Commissioners fill out their score sheets and then discuss to determine who is the top candidate. Reference checks need to be completed on the top candidate. If the reference checks are positive, then a verbal offer is made to the top candidate. If the candidate accepts the offer, then a written offer with the condition that a successful background check must be completed before the candidate can start work.

A short break was taken for the Commissioners to fill out their score sheets.

Each Commissioner provided how they ranked the applicants. There was discussion among the Commissioners regarding the applicants.

Chairman Hanson had specific questions regarding the ability for Simon Tonge being able to work in the US. HRMS Rep. Burgard stated that Simon Tonge would need to be asked if he needs a sponsorship and if yes, to notify him that North Dakota does not offer sponsorships. Legal Counsel Amundson stated that it could be part of the job offer.

Legal Counsel Amundson provided options for next steps in the process: 1) tally the score sheets and select the highest scoring candidate, or 2) make a motion for a candidate.

A motion was made by Commissioner Hanson and seconded by Commissioner Nason to offer the Executive Director position to Simon Tonge. T. Hanson – Y, Nason – Y, J. Hanson – Y, Benson – Y, and LaFromboise – abstained. Motion passed.

An amendment to the current motion was made by Commissioner LaFromboise to appoint Shadd Piehl if Simon Tonge does not meet the qualifications. There was not a second. Motion failed.
